Dear General Donnelly,

I have been told that you soon will receive the Atomic Energy Commission's highest form of recognition for outstanding contributions to this nation's atomic energy programs, the Distinguished Service Award.

I want to take this opportunity to add myself to what I'm sure must be an impressive and growing list of well wishers. But I also want to express to you my thanks, and that of my predecessors since 1965 when you became a member of the Nuclear Intelligence Panel, for the valued advice and time given on behalf of this nation's national intelligence programs.

Please accept my congratulations on the Award and my appreciation for your contributions to the intelligence community.

Sincerely,

W. E. Colby
